

Klezmerim Fundation
Zafed Masterclass

Clarinet and Klezmer in the Galilee

An International Celebration of Classical, Jazz and Klezmer Mastery
in the Old City of Safed
August 2-9, 2010 - Safed, Israel

The world's leading Classical, Jazz and Klezmer clarinetists will meet once again in the historic Old City of Safed - international spiritual home of Jewish Mysticism and Klezmer for a unique program of master classes and performances. Now in its seventh year, and following the overwhelming successes of previous years, the program will feature founder and artistic director Maestro Giora Feidman and a host of special performers and well-known instructors. As in previous conferences, invited participants will have the opportunity to learn and play with the world's top performers.

Distinguished artists of previous conferences include jazz clarinetist Eddie Daniels, Philippe Cooper - Paris Opera solo clarinetist, Charles Neidich of the Orpheus Orchestra and Juilliard School of Music, and Franklin Cohen - principal clarinetist of the Cleveland Orchestra.

RECORDING WORKSHOP, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MAESTRO GIORA FEIDMAN. Participants will learn the stages of a professional CD recording. A CD will be recorded with works of participants and ensembles of the seminar.

Artistic Director - Giora Feidman
Managing Director - Hanan Bar Sela

Leading the program are:

Maestro Giora Feidman, Artistic Director

Master Klezmer and Classical Clarinetist, responsible for the revival of Klezmer music. Bass clarinet master class with Maestro Giora Feidman.

Maestro Corrado Giuffredi - virtuoso and solo clarinetist of the Swiss-Italian Orchestra and La Scala Opera, Professor at the Conservatory of Modena, Italy.

Maestro Raul Jaurena - International Soloist and professor of Bandoneon. World specialist in Tango and Piazzola music, and a long time member of the Giora Feidman Quartet.

Constantin Moscovici - Virtuoso pan-flute soloist, international prize-winner and prodigious recording artist, member of the Philharmonic Orchestra of Serghei Lunkevich, Moldova.

Prof. Ilan Schul - President of the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance; Music Director of The Academy Chamber Orchestra as well as Head of the Clarinet class. An Internationally acclaimed musician, clarinetist and teacher.

Prof. Gersh Geller saxophone and clarinet teacher at the Academy of Music and Dance in Jerusalem.

Emil Kroytor Solo accordion artist, musical director of the Folklore Orchestra (Moldava); active composer, performer and recording artist in Israel.

Moshe "Moussa" Berlin - renowned Israeli Klezmer clarinetist.

Eva Wasserman-Margolis - Internationally recognized Classical Clarinetist specializing in Tone Production.

Avi Avital - international mandolin soloist and original repertoire performer; arranger and ensemble leader of traditional music.

Avigail Malachi - Acting producer

Master Classes will be offered in both Classical and Jazz Clarinet, and in the Klezmer style for all instruments. Classes will take place in historical synagogues and sites in the Old City of Safed. For more information and to receive a registration form, please contact: Hanan Bar-Sela at Tel: +972-52-335-2797 or by email at: barsela10@gmail.com

Performances - Nightly performances will be held in various locations in Safed.

"Clarinet and Klezmer in the Galilee" is sponsored by the Culture and Art Administration of the Ministry of Culture, Science and Sports, The Ministry of Tourism, David Friedman Fund Ltd, The Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance, Bracha Foundation, and The America-Israel Culture Fund, friends of the IDF.

We also thank our generous corporate sponsors.

Klezmer: a universal musical form and way of life, expressing our inborn desire to create music and dance.

האקדמיה למוסיקה ולמחול בירושלים
The Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance